ANNOUNCEMENT OF A 6-MONTH RESIDENTIAL SCHOLARSHIP
FOR THE PURPOSE OF STUDYING
20TH-CENTURY GLASS-MAKING ART IN VENICE
FOR UNDERGRADUATE, DOCTORAL OR POST-DOCTORAL THESIS

PERIOD OF RESIDENCE: STARTING FROM NOVEMBER 2022

Application deadline: 31 August 2022

ELIGIBLE CANDIDATES

Thanks to the contribution of Pentagram Stiftung, the Fondazione Giorgio Cini offers 1 six-month residential scholarship for the purpose of studying 20th-century glass-making art in Venice. The scholarship is worth 6,200 euros (gross sum) and accommodation free of charge for 6 months at the Vittore Branca Center Residence.

Part of the Stanze del Vetro project, the scholarship will be awarded to an Italian or foreign undergraduate or graduate student (PhD or post-doctorate) wishing to spend six months doing research at the Glass Study Center / Institute of Art History starting from November 2022¹.

Candidates shall propose a research topic preferably focused on the archives and documents owned by the Glass Study Center (<http://archivi.cini.it/cini-web/centrostudivetro/home.html>).

Candidates are invited to contact directly the Glass Study Center (centrostudivetro@cini.it) to book a visit and view its archive materials.

¹ In case of impossibility to stay in the Residence in the selected period due to force majeure causes, a further attempt will be carried out in order to agree new possible dates

TYPE OF SCHOLARSHIP

The six-month residential scholarship is awarded to undergraduate and graduate scholars (PhD and post-doctorate).

The scholarship will be divided as follows:

- a gross sum² of 6,200 euros as a contribution to general expenses, travel and board, paid in equal postponed quarterly instalments by bank transfer only;
- Accommodation free of charge for six consecutive months in the Vittore Branca Center Residence on the Island of San Giorgio Maggiore and free use of the Vittore Branca Center facilities.

WHAT THE VITTORE BRANCA CENTER HAS TO OFFER

The Vittore Branca International Center for the Study of Italian Culture offers the opportunity for interdisciplinary exchanges with fellow scholars attending the Center as well as with the academic community at the Fondazione Giorgio Cini.

Facilities and benefits include:

- a) The Libraries and Photo Library at the Fondazione Giorgio Cini, specialized in art history, Venetian history, literature, music, dance, drama and early printed books. The libraries are equipped with wi-fi. Vittore Branca Center scholars can enjoy advice by specialists and the possibility of borrowing books.
- b) Cultural events (seminars, conferences, exhibitions, concerts, etc.) organized by the Fondazione Giorgio Cini. Residents thus have the opportunity to explore the broader background to their own work. Free access to the Gallery of Palazzo Cini is also foreseen.
- c) The Residence - situated in the grounds of the Island, the Residence can accommodate around 90 scholars in self-catering mini-apartments with a telephone, connection to Internet. Kitchen facilities, such as kettle and microwave oven enable residents to economize on food expenses. The Residence also has reception, surveillance and cleaning services plus a laundromat. To encourage social life and exchanges of ideas, there are shared spaces for use by all guests: the living room, music room, fitness area and terrace.

² Article 50, clause 1, letter c) of the Testo Unico delle Imposte sui Redditi includes among incomes considered to be similar to those of employed labor "sums paid by anyone in the form of a scholarship, check, prize or subsidy for the purposes of study or professional training, if the beneficiary is not bound by relations of regular employment to the provider of funds" (tax law in force as of this scholarship issue date). The net sum paid will thus vary according to the overall tax situation of the recipient of the payment.

- d) Tutors to assist scholarship holders in becoming familiar with the island and its documentary and artistic heritage as well as offering guidance about the cultural offering of the Fondazione Giorgio Cini and the city of Venice in general.
- e) Other services, such as:
- a work place with wi-fi in the Nuova Manica Lunga, the Fondazione's main documentary center;
 - social initiatives specifically aimed at residents;
 - guidance on the Venetian heritage and on how to use libraries and archives in the city of Venice.

OBLIGATIONS FOR SCHOLARSHIP HOLDERS

To receive payment and to continue enjoying the benefits of the scholarship at the Vittore Branca Center, scholarship holders are required to:

-stay in the Vittore Branca Center Residence for six-months in the chosen period. Trips for research purposes, attending conferences or work commitments related to the research project at the Glass Study Center must be documented in writing in advance and will not be added to the days of absence for personal reasons. Days of absence for personal reasons must not add up to more than 30 working days. Absences are counted from Monday to Saturday; Sundays are excluded;

-present their research project to the academic and professional community at the Fondazione and to scholars and researchers at the Vittore Branca Center during the scholarship period and attend all presentations of other scholarship holders' research projects during their residency. The Branca scholarship holders are also offered the opportunity to present their research project within the program 'ARCHiVe Presents' with the consequent possible prospect of being published later in the new editorial series;

-The Branca Fellows regularly coordinate with their academic tutor on the research work in progress and submit a monthly written report on the status of their project;

-mention the scholarship, using the exact wording, in their curriculum vitae and in any publications or communication associated with their research at the Fondazione Giorgio Cini Institute of Art History.
